

ACADEMIC FORGIVENESS POLICY

Approved by SCAA, December 6, 2006

Amended by Senate: February 11, 2013; November 27, 2017

The Academic Forgiveness policy allows a returning student to apply to the Registrar's Office for academic forgiveness of their prior cumulative grade point average. The policy is designed for undergraduate and technology students who have had a period of absence from their academic program and have demonstrated acceptable academic performance following their return. The Academic Forgiveness policy is subject to the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. Academic Forgiveness applies only to returning undergraduate and technology students who have had an absence of at least three calendar years from a written request for Academic Forgiveness may be submitted to the Registrar's Office.

3. Academic Forgiveness will affect the student's cumulative grade point average in all courses taken prior to the minimum three-year absence. Academic Forgiveness applies to all courses taken at all colleges/universities during the forgiveness period, not only selected courses or terms.

4. No punitive grades resulting from an Academic Discipline decision will be forgiven.

5. A student can have the Academic Forgiveness policy applied to their academic record used in computing the student's cumulative grade point average, with the exception of punitive grades awarded as the result of an Academic Discipline decision. Students will be eligible to retain credit for courses in which they received
